PRESS RELEASE – FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

PAVILION KL MAKES SHOPPING SAFE AND CONVENIENT WITH DRIVE-THRU SERVICE

KUALA LUMPUR, 22 JUNE 2021 – Shoppers can now enjoy another way to shop safely and seamlessly during the Full Movement Control Order (FMCO). Pavilion Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia’s leading premier shopping destination, presents its new drive-thru service, enabling shoppers to shop without having to leave their car.

Minimising social interaction and practising safe distancing has never been more important during the nationwide lockdown. Now, with Pavilion KL’s drive-thru service, shoppers will not only avoid queues at stores, but save time as well as money on delivery fees.

The drive-thru service is available for purchases from selected food and beverage outlets as well as retailers permitted to operate during the FMCO. Those missing their favourite coffee, snacks, food and sweet treats from Pavilion KL can now pre-order from outlets such as illy Caffè, Harriston Chocolatier Café, Baskin Robbins, Calia, Grand Imperial Seafood Hot Pot & BBQ, Rakuzen and D Empire, and simply drive-thru to pick up their order.

On top of that, shoppers can also drive-thru to pick up their contact lenses or prescription glasses from a range of optical stores. With the drive-thru service, shoppers can pick up multiple orders from different tenants at the same time, at no extra cost.
