EAT YOUR WAY AROUND THE WORLD AT PAVILION KUALA LUMPUR THIS MID-AUTUMN

10 SEPTEMBER 2020, KUALA LUMPUR – Tantalise your tastebuds with bursts of flavours at Pavilion Kuala Lumpur from 1st September – 1st October in conjunction with the Mid-Autumn Festival and Malaysia Day celebrations. Presenting Mid-Autumn Symphony and Journey Of Taste campaigns, Malaysia premier shopping destination serves shoppers a harmony of unity, with irresistible gastronomical experiences, deals and delights!

MID-AUTUMN SYMPHONY

Join in the Mid-Autumn festivities from now till 1st October, with the awesome sight of over 2,000 colourful hanging lanterns at Centre Court and brightly-lit fish and flower décor lining the Spanish Steps, encapsulating the beauty and bounty of mid-autumn.

Step into the Mooncake Fair, Centre Court to discover seasonal delicacies showcased by 20 top hotels and restaurants, from evergreen favourites to halal mooncakes, durian creations to chocolate-filled goodies, all artfully packaged to create the perfect gift. Look out for lanterns to brighten any night and discover teas to sip as you admire the moon. Included in the line-up is Hang Heung Cake Shop, a century-old Chinese bakery from Hong Kong known for superior quality and unique pastries. Do try their signature Wife Cake, also known as sweetheart cake, a Cantonese pastry with a thin crust and a filling of freshly handmade winter melon paste.

Look forward to a symphony of events throughout the month of September including a fascinating Symphony Drum Show, singing performances, LED dragon performance, as well as traditional workshops to learn new skills, from lantern and polymer clay craft to the art of making mooncakes. Bring the kids, entire family and friends for an exclusive Lantern Parade on 26 September, by registering at <https://www.pavilion-kl.com/viewoffersevents/Redeem-Your-Free-Lantern> where the first 200 to register will receive the exciting opportunity to take part in the Lantern Parade. The first 1,000 to register will each receive a complimentary lantern.
