31 January 2011, Kuala Lumpur – InterContinental, a world famous name has finally arrived in Kuala Lumpur.

Managed by InterContinental Hotels Group (IHG), InterContinental Kuala Lumpur will replace the current Hotel Nikko Kuala Lumpur, effective 1st February 2011.

The 473-room hotel is nicely nestled in Jalan Ampang, a prestigious upscale address in the heart of Kuala Lumpur's commercial, entertainment and shopping district. Just a 5-minute walk to the iconic Petronas Twin Towers and Kuala Lumpur Convention Centre, InterContinental Kuala Lumpur is the only branded hotel in the area.

Conveniently located next to the Ampang Park Light Rail Transit (LRT), your stay at InterContinental Kuala Lumpur will be a class of its own as the Concierge will be happy to share his insider knowledge, so you can enjoy truly authentic local experiences to make the most of your trip. He can arrange a lesson on Batik painting with a local expert in the city, for instance. You will take home many memories of your unforgettable discoveries in this spellbinding city of Kuala Lumpur.

The hotel's facilities include a fully equipped Business Centre as well as Club InterContinental, a spacious lounge ideal for social or business interactions. The Spa as well as Health Club facilities along with an outdoor swimming pool provide the ideal environment to rest and workout. A range of restaurants and bars offer guests a wide choice of international and local cuisines from Japanese, Chinese to Malaysian specialties.

InterContinental Kuala Lumpur will soon undergo an 18-month refurbishment for the rooms and hotel's facilities. The present award-winning restaurant Benkay will start renovations in mid February this year and will be completed in April. The restaurant will be re-named Tatsu.
